

Bangalore based GlobalSOS has been selected for investor pitch event at the coveted Entrepreneurship summit 2009 hosted by IIT Bombay

Bangalore , 02,02, 2009: GlobalSOS , Telemedicine company base in Bangalore which provides medical assistance in remote locations, has been selected for investor pitch event at the coveted Entrepreneurship summit 2009 hosted by IIT Bombay.

E- Summit is a unique initiative by The Entrepreneurship Cell, IIT Bombay which serves as a common platform for aspiring, budding and successful entrepreneurs to interact and help build successful enterprises.

E-Summit 09, as an integral part of the Golden Jubilee celebrations of IIT Bombay has an overlying theme of Empowering entrepreneurs. It will exhibit a broad realm of Sessions which include insightful Panel discussions and Interactive Talk Sessions by seasoned entrepreneurs.

E-Summit '09 also brings The Investor Pitch – an invaluable opportunity for startups to raise seed capital and exclusive Mentoring sessions for aspiring entrepreneurs. The Summit will also play host to the finals of Eureka'08 – Asia's largest B-Plan competition along with Startup Showcasing and Global Conference of Entrepreneurship Promoting Organizations

GlobalSOS provides 24x7 Emergency Medical Assistance at special situations where medical help is out of reach. For example, while travelling in a commercial airline at 30000 ft or at sea.

CEO / Founder Dr Adarsh Patil expressing delight in being selected .Said that, India with its English speaking and internationally qualified medical fraternity has great potential for providing international clinical services and that the telemedicine technology has provided an opportunity to reach beyond boundaries. GlobalSOS in one such innovative effort to provide international medical services .

Lending support in the cause are many leading V.C. Firms and high profile V.C's have shown their interest in seed funding and investing in early stage startups through E-Summit '09. V.C. Firms like Seedfund, Nexus India Capital , Helion Ventures, Ojas Ventures, Waygate Capital as well as V.C's from the Indian Angel Network and Mumbai Angels are all set to make deals upto INR 50 Million

For more information visit <http://esummit.ecell.in/vc/>